

Laborers' and Retirement Board Employees' Annuity and Benefit Fund of Chicago

A Component Unit of the City of Chicago

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL

INVESTMENT ADVISORY SERVICES OPEN-ENDED CORE INFRASTRUCTURE FUND

November 30, 2018

INTRODUCTION

The Laborers' and Retirement Board Employees' Annuity and Benefit Fund of Chicago (the "Fund" or "LABF") is hereby issuing a request for proposal ("RFP") to solicit proposals from qualified Open-Ended Core Infrastructure Fund managers ("Proposers"). The Fund shall conduct the RFP process in accordance with applicable provisions of the Illinois Pension Code, the Fund's Statement of Investment Policy, the Fund's Procurement Policy, and the Fund's Ethics Policy, as amended from time-to-time.

All documents pertaining to this RFP are available on the Fund's website at <http://www.labfchicago.org/investments/investment-opportunities/>. Proposers are responsible for monitoring LABF's website for information pertaining to the RFP while the RFP is outstanding.

ABOUT LABF

Established in 1935, LABF is a pension fund of the City of Chicago. The Retirement Board of LABF (the "Board") is responsible for the general administration of the Fund. Decisions in regard to awarding mandates shall be made at the sole discretion of the Board in exercising its investment authority to ensure the prudent investment of Fund's assets. The Fund is governed by the Illinois Pension Code. To learn more about the Fund and its policies, please visit the Fund's website at www.labfchicago.org; and review the Illinois Pension Code, 40 ILCS 5/1 et seq., 40 ILCS 5/1A et seq., and 40 ILCS 5/11 et seq.

RFP DETAILS

Date Search Authorized by Board: November 20, 2018

Scope of Services: The manager shall serve as a fiduciary to LABF in accordance with the Illinois Pension Code and have independent discretionary authority with respect to the management of the portfolio and subject to the agreed-upon objectives and guidelines. To be considered, Proposer must be an existing open-ended core infrastructure strategy manager that meets the minimum qualifications found below. The investment return objective will be a mutually agreed upon premium over a relevant benchmark, net of fees, over a three- to five-year time period.

PROPOSAL EVALUATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

Proposals will be evaluated and subsequent selection made taking into account the following criteria:

- Stability and General Experience of the Firm – as measured by the stability of the financial condition of the firm and experience in providing investment management services to institutional clients.
- Key Personnel – Personnel to be assigned to this account, including key professionals, applicable portfolio managers, back-up and other staff assistance, and education and experience of all such key personnel. Assignments to be evaluated are defined as individuals who spend a majority (greater than 50%) of their time working on the product(s).
- Stability and Expertise – (a) Similar work performed for other institutional investors, with references to be specified in the proposal; (b) assets under management; (c) investment experience as it pertains to the product(s).
- Client References – as measured by the quality of the institutional references provided.
- Performance – Past performance measured on both an absolute and relative basis.
- Process – Consistent process implementation at the firm and product level, as measured by return consistency, portfolio construction methodology, and the implementation of risk controls.
- Philosophy and Style – The extent to which the proposed philosophy and style best complement existing philosophies and styles within LABF's portfolio and meet the requirements and expectations as presented in this RFP.
- Fees – Reasonableness and competitiveness of fees.
- RFP Proposal – Clarity and responsiveness to requirements as requested in the RFP.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- LABF reserves the right to reject any or all proposals or any portion(s) thereof, and to negotiate with any one or more of the Proposers. Further, LABF reserves the right to cancel this RFP.
- LABF is not responsible for any costs incurred by the Proposers in responding to this RFP.
- Proposers are advised that proposal materials are subject to the Illinois Freedom of Information Act (5 ILCS 140) (“IL FOIA”). After completion of the RFP process, which may include selection by the Board and successful negotiation of a contract, proposals submitted may be viewed and copied by any member of the public, including news agencies and competitors. Proposers claiming a statutory exemption from the IL FOIA for information within the Proposers’ submissions must identify relevant language as confidential, and identify in the email transmission of the proposal whether confidential information is included. Further, each page of confidential documentation must be labeled as such. The Proposer must also specify which statutory exemption applies for each piece of confidential information. The Freedom of Information Act can be found at the Illinois General Assembly’s website (<http://www.ilga.gov/>). LABF reserves the right to make determinations of confidentiality pursuant to IL FOIA and Illinois Attorney General interpretation.
- This RFP is neither a contract nor meant to serve as a contract. A Proposer’s preparation or submittal of a proposal or subsequent participation in presentations or contract negotiations creates no obligation on the Fund to award a contract or to pay any associated costs.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

To be considered, a firm submitting a response to this RFP must meet/comply with the following minimum qualifications:

1. Proposer must be able to enter into a written agreement with LABF that complies with the requirements found in the Illinois Pension Code and Fund's policies. Proposer must complete the RFP Suitability Questionnaire to determine compliance with the requirements established by the Board and the Illinois Pension Code as a prerequisite to the LABF reviewing the Proposer's RFP response;
2. Any person or entity providing to the LABF the services sought by this RFP must agree in writing to serve as a "fiduciary" to the Fund in accordance with the Illinois Pension Code (40 ILCS 5/1-101, et seq.) and to act in accordance with all requirements and standards of conduct applicable to fiduciaries (the fiduciary acknowledgement is required regardless of the fund structure);
3. The key decision makers must each possess more than five (5) years investment experience and a minimum of three (3) years verifiable investment experience in the asset class;
4. Proposer must have a three (3) year (the most recent three (3) year period ending September 30, 2018) investment performance record in the asset class;
5. The responding firm must have a minimum of $1 billion in assets under management in the asset class;
6. The portfolio management team must have worked together continuously for at least the past three (3) years;
7. The proposed strategy must provide liquidity on at least a quarterly basis; and
8. Proposer must be able to provide historical allocation data and other requested documents.

To the greatest extent feasible, and within the bounds of financial and fiduciary prudence, the Board is committed to increasing racial, ethnic, and gender diversity in all aspects of its utilization of vendors to provide goods and services to the Fund. Any Proposer qualifying as a "minority-owned business", "woman-owned business" or "business owned by a person with a disability", as those terms are defined in the Business Enterprise for Minorities, Women, and Persons with Disabilities Act, are exempt from (3), (4), (5) and (6) above and will be evaluated for further consideration at the discretion of the Board.
