Laborers' and Retirement Board Employees' Annuity and Benefit Fund of Chicago (LABF or Fund) was established in 1935 by the Illinois legislature and created to provide retirement and disability benefits to its members and their beneficiaries. The Fund's members include individuals who are employed by the City of Chicago in positions classified as "labor services," certain Board of Education members, and individuals employed by the Laborers', Policemen's and Firemen's Annuity and Benefit Funds.
